SATs Tests

Over the next few weeks Y2 and Y6 are doing their SATs tests. They have been working really hard over the year and we are really proud of them. You can help your child by giving them a healthy breakfast and making sure they get plenty of sleep.

Ms Herbert's Reading Bus

The bus is expected any day now! The tarmac is finished so look out for its arrival on the field!

This week Year 2 have been taking part in some outdoor learning, in the school allotment.

"We learnt about how to look after a garden so that we could write a letter to 'The Little Gardener' in English to help him to make his garden beautiful again." Miss Bell

BRINGING PEOPLE TOGETHER

Mother Tongue

A competition that celebrates the many languages spoken in schools in the UK. If your first language is something other than English and you have a poem or a song to share – either original or remembered.

This competition is for you.

See www.mtot.org.uk for details.

Other Tongue

Learning another language at school and ready to get creative with it?

Why not write a poem and enter it for our competition?

See www.mtot.org.uk for details.

Year 1 Phonics Meeting
